Banquet Honors 279 For Superior Scholarship

3.5 Is Required For Recognition

The first annual University Honors Banquet, honoring 279 students, was held in the Grand Ballroom of the University Union last Tuesday.

Pres. and Mrs. Ralph W. McDonald, hosts were joined by members of the University faculty and staff in this first formal event of its kind on this campus.

The banquet was in honor of students who achieved academic excellence in their University studies by earning a 3.5 or better average grade in the first semester of this year.

Seated at the head table were students who had earned a 4.0 average last semester and who had a cumulative point average of 3.5 or better.

After the filet mignon dinner, the Pro Musica Trio, including Paul Makara, violinist; Seymour Benstock, cellist; and Robert Chapman, pianist, performed Beethoven's "Trio in B flat major, opus 11." All three men are members of the University music faculty.

President McDonald, in an address entitled "The Best Prize," stated that Bowling Green State University is rapidly emerging as a center of academic excellence, both in its faculty and in its student body.

He added, "In this first Honors Banquet, therefore, we are extending honor where honor is due—to the students whose records denote academic excellence, to the members of the faculty who light the candle and fan the flame of such excellence, and to the institution which nurtures and advances it."

He concluded by challenging the students to use the "tools" of their "ability, learning, and further education" to help them to attain the "Best Prize," which is the chance to work hard at work worth doing.

Dr. Paul F. Leedy, director of the University Library, was toastmaster for the banquet.

A special souvenir program, listing the names of those honored, was presented to each person at the banquet.

The 43 students having a 4.00 point average last semester are as follows. Included with the seniors are those persons who were graduated Jan. 30. Seniors: Lois Babson, Phyllis Cook Coleman, Linda Gee, Larry Geissler, Hildegard Heinrich, Janice James, Carolyn Krukmyer, Frances Piasecki Kramer, Carolyn Rasmus, Freda Shawaker, Gloria Teet, Ann Thompson, Salvatore Costella, Jeanne Carlson, Ann Beard, and Carol Keck Geissler.

Juniors: Mary Ellen Leuty, Edward Mitchell, Douglas Cornell,

Thebom To Present Concert Sunday

UNIVERSITY UNION CELEBRATES its first anniversary this week. The celebration began yesterday and will continue through Saturday. Numerous programs and special events have been planned by the seven departments and various committees of the Union Activities Organization. It was one year ago that the new Union was completed to replace the Falcon's Nest (see insert), and the Interim Nest in the Commons.

Union Plans Anniversary Celebration

The University Union is celebrating its first anniversary this week with a full range of special activities and events for students, faculty, and friends of the University. Included are concerts, a dance featuring a big-name orchestra, exhibits, bowling contest, motion pictures, and guided tours of the building.

Complete details of the week's activities can be found on the insert page of today's NEWS.

Planning the anniversary week was the Union Activities Organization, with all departments and committees sponsoring various events, according to Delight Thompson, president of the Union's Board of Directors.

Future years will see other anniversary celebrations being held. Miss Thompson added, as the event becomes a permanent feature each year on Bowling Green's campus.

The Federal Inspection will be held May 13 and the President's Review on May 19.

Common hours have been changed from the area behind the Men's and Women's Gym to an area next to the Graphic Arts Bldg.

Broadway Star Joseph Ruskin To Portray Lead In 'Cyrano'

Joseph Ruskin of the Broadway stage will be the guest star in the title role of "Cyrano De Bergerac," the University Theatre's last major production of the year. Dr. Donald C. Kleckner, chairman of the speech department and director of the play, has announced.

RUSKIN

Audeen Matisick has been cast as Roxanne, the leading female character in Edmond Rostand's classic comedy, which will be produced in the main auditorium, Wednesday, May 6, through Saturday, May 9.

Other students cast as major characters in the play are Bruce Wagner as Christian, Lou Bove as De Guiche, Ron O'Leary as Ragueneau, and Mike Pink as Le Bret. Douglas Cotner, graduate assistant in speech, is the assistant director of the production.

Ruskin is regarded by many professional critics as one of the nation's finest young actors. Included in a lengthy list of credits are Broadway appearances in "King Lear" and with Maurice Evans in "The Applecart."

He has also had numerous Shakespearean roles in off-Broadway and festival performances, including Cassius in "Julius Caesar," Malvolio in "Twelfth Night," Claudius in "Hamlet," Duncan in "Macbeth," and Rufio in "Caesar and Cleopatra."

He has toured with Evans in "The Applecart," with Marilyn Maxwell in "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter," and with Chester Morris in "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial."

Mezzo-Soprano Soloist Is Artist Series Guest

BG Athletic Teams To Be Recognized At Victory Banquet

Deadline for purchase of tickets to the "victory banquet," honoring the three BG teams which won Mid-American titles this past winter, is 5 p.m. tomorrow. The banquet is Thursday at 5:30 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom of the University Union.

This year is the first that the banquet has been open to students, faculty, and townspeople.

The BG wrestlers went undefeated to win their first crown and the swimmers lost one to Ohio U. but came back strong in the MAC Championships to cop the title. The basketball team was MAC co-champ with the Miami Redskins, and defeat d the mighty Redmen in a playoff game to decide the NCAA representative.

Pres. Ralph W. McDonald will congratulate the teams and their coaches, following the dinner and the presentation of awards.

Tickets are on sale at the Business Office or at the Information Desk in the Union until 5 p.m. tomorrow. Students may purchase tickets for $2. Tickets for faculty members and townspeople are $3.

Mann To Be Installed As President Of AWS

Installation of recently-elected Association of Women Students officers will be Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Dogwood Suite of the University Union.

Taking office will be Barbara Mann, president; Sandra Hamer, first vice-president; Diane Winter, second vice-president; Koreen Stahl, treasurer; Carol Toth, corresponding secretary; and Barbara Schulz, recording secretary.

Also being installed at this time will be Susan Rautine, senior AWS representative; Judy Pierson, junior representative; and Judy Schild, sophomore representative.

Following the installation, Miss Carol Lenz, assistant to the Dean of Women, will show slides of France. Refreshments also will be served at this open installation.

Blanche Thebom, mezzo-soprano star of the Metropolitan Opera, will appear in concert at 8:15 p.m. Sunday, April 12, in the Grand Ballroom of the University Union. Miss Thebom's appearance on campus is the fourth feature of the Artist Series this year.

Tickets went on sale yesterday for the concert. Students can obtain tickets with 10 cents and the presentation of a student identification card at the Ticket Office in the Administration Bldg. or at the Information Desk in the Union. Tickets for general admission are $1.75, while those for reserved seats in the balcony are $2.25.

The mezzo-soprano will come to Bowling Green in the course of her annual coast-to-coast tour of 30 cities under the direction of S. Hurok. A native of a small town in Pennsylvania, Miss Thebom was raised in Canton and has been a major member of the Metropolitan since her history-making debut during the 1944-45 season.

Her regular appearances on the Telephone Hour and other radio and television programs have made her known to millions of music-lovers outside the opera house. She has also made outstanding successes in Vienna, at England's Royal Opera, Covent Garden, the Glyndebourne Festival, and Stockholm's Royal Opera.

Last season, Miss Thebom made a widely-hailed tour of the Soviet Union, the first American woman concert artist to appear in Russia in more than two decades, and the first American woman ever to sing in Moscow's Bolshoi Opera. She also sang at London's Royal Opera in the revival of Berlioz' "The Trojans," made a seven-week tour of Latin America for the State Department, and appeared for the U.S. at the Brussels World Fair.

Noted for her beauty, Miss Thebom is the possessor of America's most famous tresses. Her famous brunette locks have now reached to floor-length and she is 5'7". Following an article in Life magazine about her floor-length tresses, women in Rhodesia, Japan, Australia, Sumatra, and all parts of Europe and the Americas wrote to her asking for advice in dealing with their own coiffure problems. One distraught husband in Laramie, Wyo., begged her help in persuading his wife not to cut her own long hair. Miss Thebom hastened to comply, and her suggestions as to styles and arrangements saved the day.

From Wagner's heroic goddesses to sultry Delilah, from beautiful-but-dumb Dorabella in "Cosi Fan Tutte" to Baba, the bearded lady in "The Rake's Progress," from Amneris in "Aida" to the passionate Carmen, Miss Thebom has encompassed them all at the Metropolitan, The San Francisco, and with other opera companies here and abroad. Said one critic of her recently, "One of America's most voluptuous voices."

She always likes to clear up one point, however, and that concerns the pronunciation of her last name. Thebom is pronounced "Thee" as in "Theatre"—"Bom" as in "Bomb."

Carnival, Coffee Hour, Discussion To Highlight Greek Week Schedule

Carnival Night and a Greek Discussion and Coffee Hour will be innovations at this year's Greek Week festivities, announced Bob McLean and Lynn Griffith, co-chairmen of Greek Week.

The program is typical of a movement by the Greek letter organizations throughout the nation to improve upon and emphasize their role as a significant and positive force in American college life.

The Discussion Hour will attempt, by informal talk and debate, to bring the problems of the Greek system on Bowling Green's campus into clearer focus and offer possible ideas and solutions. Four discussion groups are planned—two to be held in the Pink Dogwood Room and two in the Ohio Suite of the Union.

To insure a fresh view of the problems being discussed, the Greek Week Committee has invited a national representative from each national Greek organization on campus to attend. Additional participants in the afternoon's activity will be student representatives from each group, and members of the University's faculty and administration.

A dinner will be held earlier in the afternoon to welcome the visiting representatives.

As part of the week's activities, the fraternities and sororities are sponsoring a Carnival Night from 8 until 11:30 p.m. April 24. The Greek groups will combine to produce 11 booths for the carnival, which will be held in a big tent behind the Art Bldg.

Combining for booth construction are: Sigma Phi Epsilon, Phi Kappa Psi, and Alpha Kappa Omega with Alpha Chi Omega; Zeta Beta Tau, Tau Kappa Epsilon with Alpha Delta Pi; Theta Chi with Alpha Gamma Delta; Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Nu with Alpha Phi; Phi Kappa Tau with Alpha Xi Delta; Phi Delta Theta with Chi Omega; Delta Tau Delta with Delta Gamma; Kappa Sigma with Delta Zeta; Delta Upsilon and Sigma Chi with Gamma Phi Beta; Pi Kappa Alpha with Kappa Delta; and Alpha Tau Omega with Phi Mu.

A five-cent ticket is required to participate in the activity of each booth. Each booth will give tickets to winning participants in accordance with the individual theme.

Booths will be judged and a trophy will be awarded to fraternity and sorority representatives of the winning booth. Standards for judging include: originality, general appearance, quality of construction, design, neatness, follow-through of theme, popularity with crowd, handling of the crowd, and prize originality along with continuity with theme.

Every booth will also have a "barker," who will encourage the crowd to participate in the booth's activity. An individual trophy will go to the winning "barker."

THE GRAND BALLROOM of the University Union was the scene of the University Honors Banquet. Shown above are part of the 279 honored students who received grades of 3.5 or better for the fall semester, and members of the faculty and administration. After dinner, the Pro Musica Trio presented "Trio in B flat major, opus 11."

Not Just A Showplace

A year ago, the University Union opened with a proverbial bang, as noted persons from throughout the state and nationally known artists were among the thousands who flocked into the building and viewed its facilities for the first time. After seeing it, no one could doubt the earlier statements that this was one of the best of all Unions on campuses in the United States.

But as elegant as the Carnation Room or Buckeye Room was, as large and luxurious as the Grand Ballroom was, or as serviceable as the entire building in general appeared to be, it took the work of the Union Activities Organization to make not only just the Falcons Nest but all of it the center of relaxation and entertainment on campus. A year ago, the building was a showplace that seemed to be almost too good for the students of the University. Today, it still has not lost any of its elegance, yet we all know that its primary function is to offer a wide range of activities and pastimes to the student body.

The UAO, as the Organization has come to be known, is continually working to improve the Union's service to the students. One method is the never-ending quest for members on the numerous committees. These groups should have a pretty good idea of what a student or a number of them both wants and needs from the Union's facilities, being made up of individuals from the student body. There has been some criticism of the number of committees involved, but as in a democratic government, many people need to deliberate or be consulted in order that "the people" gets what it wants.

Many of us have also been too quick to criticize certain actions of the committees or to point out their failure to do something or other. Yet the Organization is in its first year and the committee and subcommittee members were totally inexperienced last fall when they began work on a large scale. We must realize that experience is a valuable teacher in this instance, just as it is in countless others, and the number of weaknesses or faults should decrease steadily each year of the Organization's existence.

Today, we salute a young establishment that has done a remarkable job in a year.

In future years, we can expect to pay tribute to an older organization which has as its asset a University Union that is judged by all students to be as unquestionably important as any other aspect of college life at Bowling Green.

THE TRUE AND TYPICAL CASE OF CHATSWORTH OSCEOLA

You all know, of course, that every engineering senior is receiving fabulous offers from dozens of corporations, but do you know just how fabulous these offers are? Do you have any idea how widely the corporations are competing? Let me cite for you the true and typical case of Chatsworth Osceola, a true and typical senior.

Chatsworth, walking across the M.I.T. campus one day last week, was hailed by a man sitting in a yellow convertible studded with precious gem stones. "Hello," said the man, "I am Norwalk T. Sigafos of the Sigafos Bearing and Bushing Company. Do you like this car?"

"Yeah, hey," said Chatsworth.

"It's yours," said Sigafos.

"Thanks, hey," said Chatsworth.

"Do you like Philip Morris?" said Sigafos.

"Of corris," said Chatsworth.

"Here is a pack," said Sigafos. "And a new pack will be delivered to you at twelve-minute intervals every day as long as you shall live."

"Thanks, hey," said Chatsworth.

"Does your wife like Philip Morris?" said Sigafos.

"She would," said Chatsworth, "but I'm not married."

"Do you want to be?" said Sigafos.

"What American boy doesn't?" said Chatsworth.

Sigafos pressed a button on the dashboard of his convertible and the trunk opened up and out came a nubile maiden with golden hair, flawless features, a perfect disposition, and the appendix already removed. "This is Laurel Geduldig," said Sigafos. "Would you like to marry her?"

"Is her appendix out?" said Chatsworth.

"Yes," said Sigafos.

"Okay, hey," said Chatsworth.

"Congratulations," said Sigafos. "And for the happy bride, a pack of Philip Morris every twelve minutes for the rest of her life."

"Thanks, hey," said Laurel.

"Now then," said Sigafos to Chatsworth, "let's get down to business. My company will start you at $45,000 a year. You will retire at full salary upon reaching the age of 26. When you start work, we will give you a three-story house made of bullion, complete with a French Provincial swimming pool. We will provide sitter service for all your children until they are safely through puberty. We will keep your teeth in good repair, and also the teeth of your wife and children unto the third generation. We will send your dentist a pack of Philip Morris every twelve minutes as long as he shall live... Now, son, I want you to think carefully about this offer. Meanwhile, here is ten thousand dollars in small, unmarked bills, which places you under no obligation whatsoever."

"It certainly seems like a fair offer," said Chatsworth. "But there is something you should know. I am not an engineer. In fact, I don't go to M.I.T. at all. I am a poetry major at Harvard. I just came over here on a bird walk."

"Oh," said Sigafos.

"I guess I don't get to keep the money and the convertible and Laurel now, do I?" said Chatsworth.

"Of course you do," said Sigafos. "And if you'd like the job, my offer still stands."

Marketing Group Holds Seminar

The first meeting of the newly initiated marketing seminar will be held Thursday at 3:30 p.m. in the Taft Room of the University Union.

Student volunteers will present the seminar topics, after which informal discussions will be held.

According to Dr. Maurice Mandell, associate professor of business, the purpose of these seminars is to afford students and faculty the possibility of increasing their knowledge and understanding of marketing problems.

Braves Picked As Top Club In NL

By WALTER JOHNS

It's spring again and time for many sports writers and fans to bring the crystal ball out of moth balls in order to make predictions on the coming baseball season, which begins April 9.

We are not even going to attempt to make any predictions, just give you the facts, concerning the senior circuit first, the National League, and Friday, the American League.

The top club in the National League could once again be those Milwaukee Braves, who will be after their third straight pennant under Fred Haney. If they can turn the trick, it will be the first time in 15 years that a club has won the flag three consecutive years.

The Braves have everything again this season, pitching, solid power, and a fine catching corps. Their problem will be in the infield, where the loss of All-Star second baseman Red Schoendienst may create a problem.

Haney has pointed out that the spot will be filled by one of three infielders, all of whom had major league experience. Mel Roach, Felix Mantilla, and Kendall Wise are the top prospects, with Mantilla having the edge.

Otherwise, the Tribe is solid with the two Dels, Crandall and Rice, behind the plate and such top performers as Joe Adcock and Frank Torre at first, Johnny Logan at short, and hard-hitting Eddie Mathews at third.

The outfield is still one of the best in either league with Hank Aaron, Wes Covington, and Bill Bruton, with the aging Andy Pafko ready to fill in.

The pitching is the Braves biggest weapon with Warren Spahn, trying for another 20-game season, heading the list.

Lew Burdette, Bob Buhl, Joey Jay, and Juan Pizarro are Haney's starters with Don McMahon his top reliever.

The St. Louis Cardinals, who have had seven different managers in the last 10 years, will be strong in left and center field, catching, and the infield. Their weakness lies in the pitching and in right field.

Stan "The Man" Musial is definitely slated to return to the outfield, probably in left, according to latest reports of the new Card manager, the young and peppery Solly Hemus. Irv Noren or Gino Cimoli are contenders for the center slot in the garden with Curt Flood the top man for the right field job.

The infield is one of the best, with the home-run hitting George Crowe at first, Billy Harrell, from Cleveland, at second, Don Blasingame at short and Ken Boyer at the hot corner.

Back to help solve the Cardinal mound problem is Lindy McDaniel. He had trouble getting the ball over the plate last season after winning 15 in 1957. Also among the starters will be Larry Jackson, Wilmer Mizell, and Sal Maglie and Marv Grissom two bullpen specialists. The Cards will have to solve their pitching problem before they can hope to move from the fifth spot they garnered last year.

The surprising Pittsburgh Pirates of last year could go all the way this year. After breaking many Pirate fans' hearts by trading off Frank Thomas, the Pittsburgh brass still thinks they have improved their club with the addition of Harvey Haddix, infielder Don Hoak, and catcher Smokey Burgess.

The Pirates still have their 20-game winner Bob Friend plus some other fine pitchers, who gave manager Danny Murtaugh something to holler about last year.

First base is the hot spot with three power hitters vying for the position. Ted Kluszewski, the giant ex-Redleg and Dick Stuart, who hit an amazing 67 homers for Salt Lake City last year before joining the Bucs are the top contenders. Also back for another crack at the big leagues is Rocky Nelson, who has virutally murdered minor league flingers but has not yet made the big switch, having failed with the Indians and the Dodgers in previous trials.

The rest of the infield finds Dick Groat at short, Bill Mazeroski at second and Hoak at third. Gene Baker has been sidelined by an operation on his knee but should be available for limited infield duty.

The San Francisco Giants with their two top members, Willie Mays and manager Bill Rigney on the injured list, are contenders. Mays and Rigney are supposed to be ready by opening day.

The Giants are hurting in the pitching department with Johnny Antonelli, the veteran flinger, back for another season. Also listed among the starters are Jack Sanford, acquired from the Phillies, Mike McCormick, and Stu Miller, with Curt Barclay a possibility.

The infield will be strong with Orlando Cepeda, rookie of the year in the league last season, getting a shot at third and Bill White will be the first sacker. Rounding out the infield are Daryl Spencer at second and Andre Rodgers at short.

The Giants are loaded in the outfield with Mays, Hank Sauer, Whitey Lockman, and Willie Kirkland, who was belting the ball at the outset of last season and later was shipped out to Phoenix.

Frank Thomas, who was good for 35 home runs and 109 runs batted in last year as a Pirate is the main reason why the Cincinnati Redlegs are definite pennant contenders.

Under their new manager Mayo Smith, ex-Phillie field general, the Reds have been working hard to improve their fourth place finish of last year.

Frank Robinson, another long ball hitter, is the Redlegs first baseman with the keystone combination of Johnny Temple and Roy McMillan still one of the best in the business.

Don Newcombe is ready to go after some victories after a poor season along with such Redleg starters as Brooks Lawrence, Joe Nuxhall, and Bob Purkey.

Ed Bailey gives the Reds a rugged catcher and batsman and the outfield will feature Del Ennis and Gus Bell along with Thomas.

70 Men Report For Grid Drills

Doyt Perry called for 70 spring football candidates last Tuesday as the weather cleared, giving the Falcons a chance to get spring practice underway.

Only eight lettermen will be available for Coach Perry to work with in the next 30 days, as spring sports and injuries have sidelined seven veterans. Those lettermen expected for the drills were Tom Colaner, Jerry Roberts, Bob Zimpfer, Bob Bird, Dan Roberds, Jerry Colaner, Chuck Comer, and Jerry Dianiska.

One problem faced by Perry and his staff will be finding able replacements for Ray Reese, Larry Baker, Dave Jeter, Bob Morrill, Jim Dreher, and John Valentine. The main difficulty will be finding support at guard and center.

With regular quarterback Bob Colburn playing tennis, the quarterback duties will be shared between Jack Harbaugh, Dave McClain and Jay Hershey, along with freshman regular Arch Tunnell.

Racketmen Win First

Tennis became the first spring sport to get underway officially Saturday morning, as the Falcon netters beat Bradley University, 4-2.

Only six matches were held instead of the usual nine since the Illinois school had several freshmen in starting spots. BG cannot play against frosh in a varsity sport because of league restrictions.

Sophomore Doug Ganim, playing the number one spot, won by default officially, but played an exhibition match against Bradley's top man, Bob Nikels, and won easily.

Junior Bob Colburn, devoting full time to the court this spring, played in the second position and defeated Ron Belden, 6-1, 6-1. The Falcon quarterback and Ganim give BG a fine one-two punch this year.

These two won the top doubles match by default, but defeated freshmen Terry Troughton and Bob Coker, 6-1, 6-2, in exhibition.

Dick Abele defeated Ron Ganner of Bradley, 6-0, 6-2, in the third spot and Ed Whitham of Bradley defeated Jim Scheel in the fourth position.

The second doubles match saw Bradley's Belden and Ganner team up to edge Don Beran and Jim Berger, 6-2, 5-7, and 6-4, for the visitors' second match win.

Falcon Matmen Enter Nat. Meet

The Falcons sent two wrestling representatives to the NCAA tournament in Iowa City, March 26 to 28, and gained one point in the tourney.

Jim Hoppel and Jim Staggs, along with coach Bruce Ballard, made the first BG appearance in the national tourney, with Staggs winning his initial match for the single point.

Oklahoma State won the three-day affair for the 21st time in the 29 years of the tourney. Iowa State was second and Oklahoma University took third.

Hoppel, 147-pound MAC champ, hooked up with Bill Peterson, Midwest Conference champ from Cornell (Ia.) and lost a close 3-1 decision in the preliminaries.

Staggs shut out Weisner of South Dakota State, 6-0, in the prelims of the 123-pound division.

In the first round, Staggs tangled with Dave Auble from Cornell (N.Y.) and lost a 5-3 decision to the eventual national champ.

Staggs also lost another hard-fought match to Vince Garcia, Big Ten champ from Iowa, 2-1, in the consolation round.

Basketball, Buildings, Weather Hamper Falcon Diamondmen

Coach Warren Stellar's Falcon baseball nine has been hampered with many disadvantages all spring, but with 11 lettermen returning, the team is hopeful.

In the first place, during the cooler weather, the team couldn't use the gym because of the long basketball season. Now with the building of the new Men's Residence Center, the team must move off its field. In fact the first two home series with Kent State and Western Michigan, the defending champs, will have to be played away.

Anyone interested in the position of manager for the freshman baseball team, should contact Vincent Messina at the Men's Gym.

However if the rains allow the 11 returning lettermen and the rest of the squad to get in playing condition, the Falcons could press favorite Ohio University and strong Kent and the defending District No. 4 champs of the NCAA tourney, Western Michigan.

Wade Diefenthaler, one of the Midwest's top right-handers, who threw a no-hitter against Ohio U. late last season, is returning for his final year. He heads a mound corps composed entirely of right-handers. Tom Lyons, Dick Bugeda, and Ed Owens all appear to be front-line pitchers. They will be helped by Tim Smith, Dave Hornick, Ed Phillips, and John Linn. Joel Stockstill is a pitcher who can also play the outfield.

Ron Blackledge, who last year was one of the top hitters in collegiate ball with an average of .377, will return to play third base.

The keystone combination will be Dick Kuzma at short and Jack Steinecke at second. Jim Mason should be the starting first baseman, but Tom Minarcin, also a catcher, may press him. Pat Sheridan, Bob McLean, Tod Eikenberry, and Robert Boulton are all utility infielders.

Larry Bradford heads a receiving crew of five. Dave Caswell and Paul Berens should be his top competition. Minarcin and Larry Looker are also possibilities.

Jim Cordiak, Ray Reese, and Bill Walters all lettermen return to the outfield. Cordiak will be

The return of all-American outfielder, Lamar Jacobs who hit .467 last year (second best in the nation) is one reason why Ohio University is the conference favorite.

Pitchers Marty Kane and Vic Pumo give Kent strong hope of pressing Ohio U. all the way. Kane had a 2.53 earned-run-average last year as a sophomore.

Jim Bouton, who signed a $30,000 bonus contract with the Yankees, will be missed by Western Michigan on the mound. But Larry Buchanan, power-hitting first baseman, is returning. Last year he hit six homers and had 30 runs-batted-in.

With the prestige of the MAC baseball teams becoming ever so good, Bowling Green and any other team in the conference faces a rough haul before nailing down the title.

Army Riflemen Beaten By MTC

The Army ROTC rifle team was narrowly defeated by the Michigan Technical College rifle team on March 21 by a score of 1,420 to 1,413.

The BG score of 1,413 is outstanding and represents the first time the team has exceeded 1,400. Captain James I. Miller, the team advisor, said, "The team score of 1,413 is the best rifle score our team has fired this year. If we can shoot a score like this at the end of the season we should win the Inter-Service Rifle League Tournament."

Jerry Milnor led the BG team with a 288 out of 300. Four other marksmen were very high in the final totals. They were Donald Mayer, 284; Fred Semelka, 282; Lee Zimmerman, 281; and John Herge, 278.

The team traveled to Toledo University last Thursday and defeated their detachment team by a score of 1,376 to 1,330. This match decided the winner of the Toledo-BG Perpetual Trophy. As such, the trophy will remain in Bowling Green until competition resumes next year.

High scores in this match were Jerry Milnor, 283; John Herge, 275; Fred Semelka, 275; Lee Zimmerman, 275; and Don Mayer, 268.

To date the rifle team has won 11 and lost 8 matches in competition with some of the finest rifle teams in the country.

Intramurals

Softball

Bowling Green's fraternity softball teams are going to get the jump on the major leagues tomorrow as they open the 1959 softball season. Looking for its second straight all-campus crown will be Kappa Sigma.

Handball

Phi Delta Theta is the new handball champion. After winning their own league title, the Phi Dels engaged Kappa Sigma, champions of the other league, in the finals. Both teams boasted perfect records in their league encounters.

Delta Upsilon finished behind Kappa Sigma for runner-up honors in that league with a five and one record. Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, and Zeta Beta Tau, all managed to win four and lose two to tie for runner-up behind Phi Delta Theta.

Basketball

Phi Delta Theta and Blakes Bombers walked away from the rest of the field in scoring for the intramural basketball season. The Phi Dels totaled 238 points for the season, way in front of Sigma Chi (167), and Phi Kappa Tau (161). The Bombers made a shambles of the independent scoring race with 190 points, followed by the Shatzel Hoopsters with 140.

Doug Ganim paced the fraternity hoopsters with 68 points. Ed Long netted 64 and Bob Colburn 61 to finish out the top three. Ron Obbe's 54 points topped the independents. Dave Swope scored 47 through the season for runner-up honors.

Track Relays

Alpha Kappa Omega won the 10th annual fraternity-sorority relays by edging Phi Delta Theta by four points. AKO totaled 30 points in the four-event meet, to 26 for the Phi Dels. Delta Gamma won the sorority 2-lap relay to take the women's crown, finishing ahead of Alpha Chi Omega and Chi Omega.

Alpha Kappa Omega won three events and finished second in the other, while the Phi Dels were winning one and placing second in the others. One new record was set, this by Phi Delta Theta in the 12-lap relay.

Candid Photos Are Feature Of Display Currently In Union

"The Unguarded Moment," a Smithsonian Institution traveling exhibition of photographs, is now on display in the Promenade Lounge of the Union. The photographs were taken by the late Dr. Erich Salomon, pioneer in the use of the miniature camera and father of the candid-camera technique. The exhibit will be on display until Sunday, April 19.

This exhibit of 104 photographs was gathered through the efforts of Dr. Salomon's son. The selection was shown in Germany, Holland, and England before coming to this country to go on tour. The exhibition was previewed in the U.S. at Eastman House in Rochester; the Time and Life Bldg. in New York City; and the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C.

The exhibit includes unposed studies of such political figures as Briand, Herriot, Ramsay MacDonald, Chamberlain, Laval, Stresemann, and Brüning. # Various Activities Highlight Union Anniversary

Concert, Formal Dance Feature Christian Band

Highlight of the University Union's First Anniversary, will be an appearance of the band of Bobby Christian, "Mr. Percussion," in an informal concert and also at the formal dance planned for Saturday.

The concert featuring "The Band With A Sound" will be held at 8 p.m. in the main auditorium in the Administration Bldg. Tickets may be purchased at the Information Desk of the Union with the presentation of 10 cents and a student identification card.

Special lighting and staging effects have been planned for the concert. The event has been arranged through the Informal Concerts Committee of the Union Activities Organization.

The dance will be from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the Grand Ballroom. Tickets for the dance may also be purchased at the Union Information Desk for 25 cents per couple and the presentation of a student identification card. If women students attend the dance, they will receive 1 a.m. permissions. Special tickets have been constructed for the dance similar to those used for the Election Party Dance held before spring recess. The woman student need only present a particular portion of the ticket to the head resident upon entering her housing unit that evening.

A limited number of tickets will be sold for the two events: 1,170 for the concert and 3,300 for the dance. Sale of tickets will be concluded tomorrow, stated Delight Thompson, president of the UAO.

Bobby Christian, a Chicago-born lad, is a master of the Vibraphone, Xylophone, Drums, Bongos, Tympani, and piano and during his performance sprints from one percussion instrument to another with equal agility. In addition to the instruments, the musician composes, arranges, and conducts as well as sings along with the band.

"Mr. Percussion" has arranged for Paul Whiteman, Roy Sfield and Richard Maltby and Bobby Hackett on the Gloria DeHaven TV Show. He has been a featured musician with Caesar Petrillo, the Chicago Symphony under Fritz Reiner, Arturo Toscanini, other conductors of the New York Philharmonic and was featured with Meredith Wilson and Percy Faith.

Every arrangement his band now plays was arranged by Christian. Before each collegian appearance, he takes time to make a combination concert and dance type arrangement of the fight song of the college. The original score is then presented to the dance chairman for the use of the college.

Down Beat magazine says, "His book and beat are both basically simple, yet pleasantly up-to-date. He uses the long-neglected dance band instrument, the guitar, both as a rhythm instrument and as a melodic, single string voice with the selections... It's a good compact, interesting dance band..."

Also featured with the band are singers Vernyle and Ray DiFlavio.

ONE YEAR AGO, on a rainy morning in April, excitement reigned on the Bowling Green campus as Mrs. Ralph W. McDonald cut the ribbon to open the University Union. Now, a year later, the Union is visited continually by students, faculty, townspeople, conventioners, and families. It is indeed the showplace of the campus.

In The Union

UAO Campus Service Committee Offers Information To Students

By DAVE MERTZ

The work of one of the Union's numerous committees, the Campus Services Committee, can be offered as typical of that done by the various committees as a service to University students. Like the others, its activities began in the fall when the Union Activities Organization began full-scale operation.

The Campus Services Committee, with Marcia Zimmerman as its chairman, concerns itself primarily with offering travel information to students, although the articles that are lost and found throughout the campus are their problems also.

Travel information, whether it be notes of rides available and rides wanted between school and students' homes or extensive material needed to plan a summer's vacation, can be obtained in the Union Activities Office. Another use was made of the service recently, when a University coed obtained the necessary travel information for a summer honeymoon.

An extensive number of travel folders, brochures, and pamphlets, obtained from railway companies, resorts, state tourist councils, airlines, and other like sources in foreign countries as well as the U.S., are in file 147 in the UA Office. Faculty as well as students are encouraged to use them in planning trips. Costs, reservation information, scenic spots, transportation facilities, and names of hotels are just a small part of the facts available in this material.

Periodic displays are set up in various places in the Union, Miss Zimmerman said, to publicize travel opportunities and the fact that other material can be obtained from the Committee. When travel films are shown by the Special Features Committee, such as the Ohio films being shown Friday night, Campus Services provides a display of available travel information about the particular regions with which the films deal.

But Miss Zimmerman admitted providing information about rides to and from the University is probably the most valuable to the BG student.

A feature of this service is the "State Your Ride Board," which is being highlighted by the Committee during the anniversary celebration this week. This is a large map of Ohio placed outside the UA office, with major cities identified and cards bearing either students' requests for rides or offers of rides between the cities and Bowling Green.

The cards are taken from a file in the Office, Miss Zimmerman explained, which contains like information furnished by students from all parts of the country. This information can be submitted to the Office personnel at anytime during the day, and he file can always be consulted by interested persons.

Other files located in the UA Office are the lost and found files, the upkeep of which is also the work of the Committee. A member is in the Office from 3:30 to 4:45 p.m. each week day to accept information about lost or found articles and to put this in the files. If a student reports a lost article and it is turned in at the Office, the loser is notified.

Union Recruitment Night To Be Held Tomorrow

The University Activities Organization will hold its second semi-annual recruitment night, tomorrow, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., in the Grand Ballroom of the Union.

The affair will be run as an open house so that students may visit anytime during the hour.

A committee member will greet the students as they enter. They will then be taken to the different department booths for general information about the various committees. Each booth will represent a department.

At the last booth visited the student will fill out an application for the committee which interests him most.

Invitations have been sent to all campus leaders and students with a point average of 2.5 or above. Any other students who are interested are invited to attend.

Refreshments will be served during the course of the evening.

Bowlers Competing In Union Tourney

An anniversary feature sponsored by the Recreation Department of the UAO this week is a bowling contest, Hal Wassink, department director, has announced.

Each day, a record will be kept of the scores of all persons bowling in the Union, and the highest scores of the men and women bowlers will be posted in the Buckeye Room.

Saturday, a trophy will be presented to the top woman bowler and to the top man bowler. The award presentation will be based only on the highest individual scores recorded during the week, Wassink added, and it is known as the "Top Score of the Anniversary Week Award."

Pictures Reveal Story Of How It All Began

"How It All Began" will be the subject of a photographic exhibit to be displayed in the Promenade Lounge of the Union during the Union Anniversary Week.

Photographs showing the interior and exterior of the Old Nest, the Interim Nest, moving the Old Nest, and the construction of the Union will be featured. A series of three pictures entitled "Going, Going, Gone" will recapture the Union's ribbon cutting ceremony.

First Presentation Of Women's World Is Held In Union

The first of the "Women's World" series was presented last night as part of the Union's anniversary celebration. The event was held in the Carnation Room and featured Mrs. Helen McHenry of the McHenry Modeling Agency, Toledo.

Mrs. McHenry spoke on and demonstrated correct posture, walking up and down stairs properly, and other points of good grooming and charm.

A door prize of a McHenry hat box was awarded. Special tickets for the affair were sent to all counselors and three guests, head residents, and social chairmen, announced Peg Faze, chairman of the Social Department of the Union. The series is being sponsored by the Social Interest Committee and the Association of Women Students.

The next meeting of the series will be held April 13 and will deal with color and make-up, while the third meeting, April 27, will be highlighted by information concerning proper table setting, the correct way of answering formal invitations and notes, and general etiquette.

The fourth and final program will be the annual style show to be presented in the Grand Ballroom, May 11.

Post Cards Are Sent To Announce Events; Union Tours Available

Announcement of the Union's first anniversary has been made to persons in Ohio through postcards featuring a colored picture of the Union. These were sent to all newspapers in the state and to unions at other colleges and universities. They were mailed by the Union Activities Organization.

On the cards, Delight Thompson, president of the Board of Directors, has written "The Union Activities Organization of the Bowling Green State University Union announces the first anniversary celebration of the University Union to be held April 6 to 12. If you are in the vicinity we would like you to stop in and share in the festivities with us."

Tours for visitors to the Union have been planned by the Hospitality and Reception Committee, with Roger Andrews as head. These will be conducted from the Information Desk, beginning at 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, and members of the Committee will act as guides.

Students are especially urged to invite parents and friends to the campus on these days to view the Union in its entirety, Andrews added.

2 Free Art Films Are Planned For Union Showing This Week

Cap and Gown, leadership honor society for senior women, and the Campus Movie Committee are sponsoring two free art movies, to be shown at 7 p.m. Thursday in the main auditorium. A student can gain admission by showing his identification card, Carol Creason, Cap and Gown member, stated.

The movies, "Notes on Port of St. Francis" and "Pre-Columbian Mexican Sculpture," are being shown in connection with the Union's anniversary celebration.

"Notes on Port of St. Francis" deals with San Francisco, Miss Creason said, and is a documentary that has won numerous awards and prizes in contests throughout the country. The second film is unusual, she added, because a noted jazz group provides the background music.

Travel Films Feature State Of Ohio Friday

Two films, "Ohio, USA" and "Highlights of Ohio" will be shown during the University Union week. The films will be presented Friday at 7 p.m. in the Ohio Suite of the Union.

"Ohio, USA" is a 28-minute color film depicting Ohio's recreational, industrial, agricultural and historical resources.

The second film, "Highlights of Ohio," tells how Ohio offers many advantages to its residents. A review of agricultural, industrial and recreational facilities will be shown as well as Ohio's outstanding resources. This film, also in color, will last 35 minutes.

Faze Recipient Of Excellent Rating At Pi Kappa Delta Nat'l Convention

During the national convention of Pi Kappa Delta, Peg Faze, University senior, was given an excellent rating in the women's division of the discussion section of the forensic competition. This competition also included extemporaneous speaking contests, oratory matches, and debate team matches for both men and women.

FAZE

Dr. Raymond Yeager, Bowling Green forensic coach and convention chairman, was one of three persons elected to the National Council of the society for a two-year term. Dr. Yeager is also governor of the Province of the Lakes, which includes PiKD chapters at schools in Maine, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia.

The men contestants from fourteen schools received ratings of superior during the convention as a result of their winning points in the various contests of the men's division. These schools were Baylor, Texas, College of the Pacific, California, Kansas State College at Emporia, North Texas State, Redlands University, San Diego State College, Southeast Missouri State, Southern Illinois, Southwestern College (Kansas), Southwestern Louisiana Institute, College of St. Thomas (Minnesota), Texas Christian, Wheaton College (Illinois), and State College at Oshkosh (Wisconsin).

Women contestants from eight colleges and universities received superior ratings. These schools were Central Iowa, College of Puget Sound, Huron College (South Dakota), Pacific Lutheran (Washington), Southwestern College (Kansas), St. Olaf (Minnesota), Tennessee Polytechnic Institute, and Wisconsin's State College at Oshkosh.

Competing in the women's division of the debate team competition for Bowling Green were Jean Walker and Roberta Wolfer for the affirmative, and Judy Hepplewhite and Janet Stash for the negative. These teams won three and lost five debates.

Bowling Green's men's debate teams won one and lost seven debates in competition with other schools. Ray Marvin and Richard Hoffman presented the affirmative, and Hugh Convery and Bob Rask took the negative stand.

Entered in the oratory competition for Bowling Green were Emma Thomas and Richard Hoffman, but they failed to place. No University students took part in the extemporaneous speaking contests.

Conventioners From 36 States, 140 Colleges Gather On Campus

Nearly 700 people representing 140 colleges and universities from 36 states gathered here on campus for the Pi Kappa Delta twenty-first biennial national convention.

The delegates came from all parts of the nation, by plane, train, chartered buses, and cars. The largest delegation, other than Bowling Green's, was from the College of the Puget Sound which sent 13 representatives to the convention. The Los Angeles State College debate representatives came more than 3,000 miles, having the distinction of traveling the farthest.

During the convention week, a daily paper was published to keep delegates posted as to convention news and interesting color concerning its representatives. The paper, which is the feature of every biennial convention, is called the KEY of Pi Kappa Delta. The KEY staff this year was Wanda Chynoweth and Paul Gray, editors; Peg Faze, managing editor; Robert Kinsle, Robert Rask, Ron O'Leary, Janet Stash, Michael Phegner, and Thelma Madden, reporters.

Entertainment was also provided during the convention. On Province Night, Monday, March 23, entertainment was supplied by Peg Faze, Thelma Madden and Ron O'Leary, Louis Bove and Dave Busser, and Rex McGraw '58.

Thursday night, March 25, was Pi Kap Talent night and all the convention talent was put on display.

Principal addresses at the convention were given by Dr. Waldo Braden, chairman of the speech department at Louisiana State University. His topic was "What Happens to Debaters and Why." Also, Dr. Dwayne Orton, editor of THINK magazine spoke on the "Faith of the Bleeder." Dr. Orton received this year's Pi Kappa Delta Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Two thousand daffodils were flown in from Takoma, Wash., and were given to everyone attending the banquet—compliments of the Daffodil Festival being held there.

Shopping bags stuffed with assorted items, donated by various concerns throughout the nation, were given as favors to every person at the banquet.

A group of representatives from upper Iowa cancelled their reservations at the convention. Reason . . . they were snowbound.

High School Pupils At Science Exhibit, Education Meeting

Approximately 2,000 students, in grades 7 through 12, exhibited science projects in the annual District Science Day program at the University Saturday.

A host of judges rated the projects on the basis of neatness, scope, clarity of explanation, thoroughness, and knowledge achieved. Of those students who received a superior rating, 138 were picked to participate in the State Science Day to be held April 17 at Capital University in Columbus. This is being held in connection with the annual meeting of the Ohio Academy of Science.

Both Districts and State Science Days are sponsored by the junior division of the Ohio Academy of Science. The guest of honor was Dr. Richard Goldthwait, president of the Ohio Academy of Science.

Over 400 northwest Ohio high school students and teachers attended the seventh annual spring business education conference at the University, Saturday.

The featured guest speaker at the conference was Dr. Alan Lloyd, editor of typing publications for the Gregg Publishing Company, New York. The popular lecturer, author, and business education consultant gave the opening address Saturday morning and led a group session for teachers in the afternoon.

The one-day conference, keyed to the theme of the future in business education, included group sessions, luncheon, and campus tours for both students and teachers.

Conference arrangements were made by the BGSU business education department, headed by Dr. Mearl Guthrie, and assisted by members of the University staff and student body.
